PREFACE.

In issuing the Glasgow Post-Office Directory for 1908-1909, the Publishers beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of Eighty-one years, and desire to state that as formerly no effort has been spared to render it as accurate and complete as possible. They, however, do not hold themselves responsible for any error or omission.

A Map of the Environs of Glasgow will be found at the beginning of the book. The Almanac, Tide Tables, Banks, &c., Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1907-1908, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also a description of the revised Municipal Wards, will be found in their former positions. To these have been added a list of the Conveners and Secretaries of the various Ward Committees. In the Streets Directory (pages 733 to 1057) the number affixed to the name of each street indicates the Municipal Ward in which such street is situated for electoral purposes. The numbers have been corrected in accordance with the new arrangement of the city wards. At pages 23 to 54 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number affixed its registration district. The large Map, revised and brought up to date by Messrs. J. Bartholomew & Co., Edinburgh, is placed at the end of the Directory.

The various Suburban Districts around the City are given, as formerly, revised and corrected. The Burghs of Govan and Partick are incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding various Institutions and Public Offices in the City and Suburbs.

The printing has been done by Messrs. Aird & Coghill, Ltd., 24 Douglas Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ltd., 58 Cadogan Street.

All communications on Directory business should be addressed to the Editor Post Office Directory, 207 Ingram Street, Glasgow.

Is this Country Done?

In Spite of Free Trade! We are convinced—not nearly; that whether Fiscal Reform come or not we shall continue to hold, if not the first place, a very good place among the nations of the world. The average Britisher is not a stupid man, and is now very ready to adopt the latest tools and commercial methods for the manufacture and sale of his goods. The possibilities that lie in the "get-up" of his Stationery and Printed Matter have not escaped our Alert Business Man's notice. But it seems to him it were more easy to get an "up-to-date" machine than an "up-to-date" Stationer and Printer. This is where we come in. You want us—we require you. We require you because you are an Alert Business Man wishing good Stationery and Printing; because you know such costs time and money and cannot be cheap; because you take for granted we know our trade and leave a little to us; because being an Alert Business Man and aided by good Stationery, your business prospers and your Printing and Stationery Account increases; because we have no use for other than A.B.M. You want us because we are business people, knowing our trade; because thereby you do not require to waste your time teaching us it; because this represents time saved for your own business which counts first; because we have imagination, taste and resource; because we don't bungle; because you get just what you want, the first time.

Britisher Not a Stupid.

Where We come in.

Our Method and Work. Established 16 years ago, we have always had the conviction, and that never more strongly than now, that there is a place for us—for our methods and our work. That these are right—the steady increase in our trade and demand for our Printing and Stationery testify. Our business has been built up from the inside—a slow perhaps, but very sure way. Realizing that volume and bulk cannot at first go hand in hand with excellence, we chose the latter. We exacted from our workmen and of ourselves a high standard of work, which has been maintained with our present much greater output. We have but one grade—the best. A cheap price does not with us mean a cheap job. To get the work right has been our first aim—profit-making came afterwards. We won't and indeed can't do bad work—it is not good for our health.

Up-to-date Material. We keep a sharp look-out for and immediately add to our stock all new goods which, by their unique or attractive appearance or sensible qualities, possess advantages over the old. It is distasteful to us the thought that anyone by going elsewhere could do better than by us, and we can assure ourselves that, while he may get a cheaper article, he could nowhere be better served as regards suitability and "up-to-dateness."

Prices. Our prices are based on a uniform moderate scale, based on rating got at after very careful calculations of our oncost. As with quality, so with price—we have but one. For it we give our best energies and skill; if less be offered, the business loses interest for us.

Claim. There is no such thing as cheap Stationery; it is either value or it is not value. If it does not fulfil its best purpose for you, it is not value, and therefore not cheap, no matter the price. Our Stationery and Printing is Cheap because it is Value—the very best good attainable being got from it. Try it; you will not be disappointed.
